

*The Human Experiences and Endeavors Curriculum
Competency, Learning Outcome, and Student Action Steps
Social Sciences*

Competency:

TCU graduates will understand social environments that arise from and influence human interaction.

Learning Outcome	Student Action Steps
Students will demonstrate knowledge of and an ability to analyze and evaluate the fundamental social processes that characterize human experiences, using social science methodology*. * Social science methodology is the system of principles, practices and procedures specific to the social science tradition.	Students will examine a range of social forces that characterize and influence human interaction. Using an appropriate social science methodology, students will analyze and evaluate how those forces characterize and influence human interaction. Students will present appropriate evidence-based conclusions about social processes and human interaction.